To my Grandparents

Thomas Lyle, born January 11, 1817, Antrim County, Ireland; died January 25, 1892, Drew County, Arkansas; married December 17, 1840, Richburg, South Carolina, Sarah Martin Knox, born December 30, 1819, Richburg, Chester County, South Carolina. They were charter members of Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church, Drew County, Arkansas, and were buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery. They migrated from Chester County, South Carolina, in the fall of 1851, to Tipton County, Tennessee, and to Drew County, Arkansas, in the fall of 1854.

And

To my Parents

James Martin Lyle, born October 24, 1855, Drew County, Arkansas; died December 13, 1938, Lafayette County, Arkansas; married August 30, 1885, Garnett, Lincoln County, Arkansas, Jenetta (Nettie) Belle Gammill, born April 17, 1869, Drew County, Arkansas; died May 2, 1938, Pulaski County, Arkansas. They were buried in Holly Springs (Baptist) Cemetery, Garnett community, Lincoln County, Arkansas.

FOREWORD

Drew County, Arkansas, was created from part of Bradley, County, November 26, 1846. It was named for Thomas S. Drew, then Governor of the State. Ashley County was created from part of Drew County, November 30, 1848.

Officiants are shown on page 38 through page 41. Under heading "Page", the first number refers to page in this volume; the second number refers to page in Marriage Record Book B. When the denomination for the Minister did not appear in Book B, I have shown what I found elsewhere and source. The Township for many of the Justices of the Peace were not shown. By checking the 1850 and the 1860 Census for Drew County I learned the name of the Township in which a number of them lived.

It was at the suggestion of my sister, Miss Georgia Lyle, now deceased, that I undertook to copy the first book of marriage records of Drew County. I am grateful to Mrs. Myrtle Conrad Hudspeth, Deputy in the County Clerk's office, Monticello, Drew County, Arkansas, for her kindness in assisting me with the hard-to-read names, as well as my sister, Miss Henry Lyle and my cousin Jennie Thomas (Mrs. Garland Craig) Ross for their able assistance in checking the records.

Abbreviations: JP Justice of the Peace.
MG Minister of the Gospel.

Index: See pages 27 to 37 inclusive.
